COURT DEALS OUT PENALTIES

A Number of Prisoners Sentenced by Judge Bell

HIGHWAY ROBBER TO THE PEN

Murphy, Who Held Up a Woman on Streets of DuBois in April Pleads Guilty—The Brink-Hoover Case From Troutville Aired in Court.

A batch of seven prisoners, some convicted of crimes and others of whom plead guilty, were disposed of by Judge Bell in court this morning.

August Pierre, charged with receiving stolen goods, taken from a Curwensville store, was sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and the costs and serve a term of imprisonment in the Western penitentiary for a period of not more than two and one-half years and not less than two years. Pierre took his sentence calmly.

Jack Daley, an alleged accomplice of Pierre, was dismissed from custody, proof of his guilt not having been established.

Harry Holes, wife desertion, was the subject of an order relative to further payment to his wife and children.

A. J. Murphy, who was accused of highway robbery at DuBois, in April, plead guilty to robbing Mrs. Stage, an aged lady of DuBois, some money and a quality of jewelry being taken. The robbery occurred on the street in DuBois in the dusk of the evening. Murphy on the stand told his side of the story, confessing that he had perpetrated the robbery. He said that he had been in business in Curwensville for about five years, going from there to DuBois. Since he became infatuated with a DuBois woman he has neglected to aid his family.

Murphy stated that a woman had put him up to rob Mrs. Stage and told him how to get the jewelry from her. He said that after the robbery he went down the street, took the contents out of the handbag and put them into his pocket. He then went to the scene of the robbery and mingled with the crowd.

Murphy had made a confession of his guilt while in jail. He sold some of the jewelry, pawned some, and threw others into the river at Pittsburgh.

In his questions, J. A. Gleason, representing the commonwealth, sought to prove that two women of DuBois were Murphy's accomplices in the crime.

Judge Bell stated that there was nothing in the case calling for leniency. In view of his family the court sentenced Murphy to pay $1 and costs and undergo imprisonment in the Western penitentiary for a period of not more than three years and not less than two years and six months.

Mike Alexandrovitch, charged with stealing pigeons from a DuBois priest. The boy is said to have stolen a score or more pigeons. The prisoner said his boarding house boss took two of the birds and agreed to say nothing about the matter. The boarding boss is under bail on the charge of receiving stolen goods. The boy plead guilty.

Mike was remanded to jail, more as a witness to be used in the prosecution of his boarding house boss than as a convict. The boy is not very bright.

The case against William Hoover, charged with enticing Lizzie Brink from her home near Troutville to a shanty on the mountains near Curry Run closed at noon with the statement of the court that the case is so complicated that more time would be given to the commonwealth in which to secure evidence against the prisoner.

The Brink-Hoover case is one of the hardest nuts the county court has had to pick for years. The father, Abraham Brink is accused by his daughter Lizzie, a girl under 16 years of age, with an attempt to assault her. The daughter is charged with incorrigibility and William Hoover is charged with abducting Lizzie away from her home for immoral purposes.

Judge Bell remanded Lizzie to jail and directed that William Hoover be given his freedom, provided he enters into a recognizance with good security for his appearance at the September term.

Abraham Brink was also remanded to jail for court. Sheriff McCloskey added several new prisoners to his jail family since Saturday Mary Walle was brought to the hostile from Chest township on the charge of being a vicious and boisterous woman. Harry White also of Chest township, was jailed on the charge of committing a statutory crime upon a fourteen-years old girl in that township.

FLYNN NOT FLINN

Elk County Democrat Author of the Party Enrollment Act.

Lacking respectable campaign material to bolster up their cause, some of the Penrose men have resorted to the cheap trick of trying to throw the blame for the enactment of the unpopular Flynn party enrollment law on ex-Senator William Flinn, of Pittsburgh, the Washington party state leader.

As a matter of fact, the name of Flynn on the gang enrollment act stands as an indictment of Penrose's bipartisan machine that has operated at Harrisburg. The legislator who introduced the enrollment bill for its tory authors was State Representative John M. Flynn, a Jim Hall Democrat, of Elk county, and the Republican-Democratic twin-machine lawmakers passed it. The Elk county Flynn, it will be noticed, does not spell his name the same way as ex-Senator Flinn. The Progressives in the legislature opposed the Flynn bill.

FINE ENTERTAINMENT

Program Executed at Baptist Church Pleases Audience.

The Children's day exercises at the Baptist church Sunday evening were heartily enjoyed by a large audience. The children taking part in the entertainment acquitted themselves in a most creditable manner and won merited praise.

The solos by the little girls were especially good, and the entire program was one in which the friends of the boys and girls found much to commend.

LISTS OF CANDIDATES

Names of Nominees at Primaries to be Printed by State.

Copy for the state department's biennial pamphlet, showing the list of successful candidates for all offices at the primaries last month, has been sent to the state printer, and it is hoped to have the publication ready for distribution by the end of this month.

The department already has had loose sheets printed showing the vote by sheets for United States senator, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of internal affairs and supreme and superior court judges.

MOST WELCOME RAIN VISITS CLEARFIELD

Brings Joy to Farmers and Gardeners And Ends Drouth

A rainstorm which was worth thousands of dollars to Clearfield county farmers and gardeners, flushed the streets of this town, put an end to the dust nuisance in the public roads and did some slight damage, visited this section Sunday evening.

The storm assumed aspects such as have never been seen in this vicinity. The heavens were filled with clouds which had the appearance of having encountered diverse winds on their voyage through the air, presenting the form of swirls, eddies and rapids, so familiar to those who watch the waters of a rapid stream of water. The picture presented to view was such as might have produced two mighty storms meeting and contesting the right of way through the etherial highway.

Rain began to fall early in the evening and continued steadily all night, penetrating the ground in that manner so pleasing to the grower of crops and vegetables. It was one of the most welcome downpours of water this section has had in years, as the vegetation in the county was parched and retarded by the long season of drouth.

The electric accompaniment to the rain did little damage, but the wind overthrew a number of trees and broke off the branches in various parts of town. A big tree on Market street, near the bridge, was blown over and a large branch was broken from a tree at the English Lutheran church.

If you have anything to sell, try an advertisement in the Progress. The cost is light and the results are almost certain to be satisfactory.

ROOSEVELT WILL VISIT THE STATE

Colonel Will Aid in Campaign Against Penroseism

PINCHOT STANDS BY BROTHER

Progressive Party Would be Better Off if Chairman Perkins Were to Resign—Postmaster Removed for Holding Up Pinchot Cards Announcing Meetings.

Gifford Pinchot, Washington party nominee for United States senator, denounces as absurd the statements in tory newspapers that Theodore Roosevelt will not take an aggressive part in the Pennsylvania campaign this fall. He ridicules the reactionaries' stories the the colonel may seek to renew friendship with Senator Penrose.

"I have not the slightest doubt that Colonel Roosevelt will come into the state this fall to carry out his program and take an aggressive part in the campaign," said Mr. Pinchot on his return to Philadelphia from a visit to New Haven. "Whether he makes a speech for an hour and a half outdoors or not is not of great importance. The essential thing is that the colonel is coming here."

"The repeated statements in the reactionary press to the effect that he will not come to Pennsylvania are expressions of the hopes of those papers and not of the facts in the case. The wish of such papers is father to their statements."

No Truth in Story.

"The same is true of the stories that the colonel will let up on Penrose. The senator's followers, if they are under any such delusion as this, will have occasion to change their minds when the colonel gets here. None but a remarkably simple-minded person could be led to believe either that the colonel desires the friendship of the Penrose machine or that he can get it under any circumstances."

"Penrose and Roosevelt can no more mix than oil and water, for they stand for diametrically opposite principles, both in theory and practice."

Stands With His Brother.

Gifford Pinchot, in an interview declared that he stood with his brother, Amos Pinchot, in the latter's criticism of George W. Perkins, of New York.

Last week Amos Pinchot made public a letter calling on Perkins to resign as an official of the Progressive party because of his relations with the harvester and steel trusts.

"My brother is right," said Gifford Pinchot. "I am in hearty agreement with his desire that the Progressive party should be free from the burden of Perkins' chairmanship. Perkins has had and will have nothing whatever to do with my fight against Penrose in Pennsylvania. In general the people of our state appear to take little interest in Perkins."

Since he announced that he intends to spend the summer in campaigning, Pinchot has received a flood of invitations from all parts of the state asking him to deliver addresses and speeches. He will fill as many dates as possible, while at the same time keeping up his work in meeting the voters throughout the counties and discussing the issues.

Held Up Pinchot's Cards.

New Cumberland, June 22.—Herman Long has been removed as postmaster here for holding mails sent by Gifford Pinchot to voters.

When Mr. Pinchot visited this section recently, it was found that his cards announcing his coming had not been received by persons to whom they were addressed. The postal authorities sent an inspector here. After receiving the signatures of many men who said they did not receive their mail, the inspector went to the local office, where he found it in a bundle on a shelf. Mr. Long's defense was that the patrons refused to accept the cards, but this was found not to be the case.

On Saturday, James A. Davis, one of Long's bondsmen, was notified by the department to meet the co-security and select a person to take charge of the office until Long's successor is appointed.

Long is a Penrose Republican, who was appointed on the recommendation of the late Congressman Olmstead.

The Weather.

Cooler and probably showers; moderate winds, mostly northerly.

JOHN HALEY, SR. SERIOUSLY HURT

His Automobile Gets Beyond Control on Moore's Hill

IS IN A CRITICAL CONDITION

While Descending Incline Mr. Haley's Car Turns Turtle and He is Buried Under Machine—Collar Bone Dislocated, Four Ribs Broken and His Head Badly Cut.

John Haley, Sr., a prominent citizen of Penn township, was seriously injured Saturday afternoon when his automobile got from him while he was descending Moore's hill, near Lumber City. Mr. Haley was driving down the hill at a pretty fast rate when his car got beyond his control and the machine turned turtle, pinning him beneath it.

Mr. Haley was held down by the car about an hour, when he was found by an automobile party passing that way and released. When found he was unconscious, but later regained his senses.

The injured man was taken to his home and Dr. Curry, of Grampian, and Dr. King, of Curwensville, were summoned to attend to him. It was found that Mr. Haley's collar bone was dislocated, four of his ribs broken and his head badly cut.

He is in a critical condition, and an operation will be performed to save his life. Mr. Haley is a farmer and was also engaged in lumbering.

HUNTERS LICENSES

Blanks Being Issued to County Treasurers by Game Commission.

Issuance of blanks for hunters' licenses for 1914 has been started by the state game commission, and it is expected more than 310,000 blanks will be sent to the county treasurers throughout the state so that all applicants can be taken care of promptly. Last year 303,000 licenses were issued at $1 each, the state treasurer receiving all but ten per cent., which went to the county treasurers. Unfortunately the money remains in the state treasury, awaiting the settlement of the controversy about specific appropriations.

The licenses will become effective on September 1, when it is expected many persons will have obtained them.

At the Tuesday evening meeting new flour work will be the feature of the meeting, under the direction of the deputy great commander, Miss Belle M. Doughty.

HOME RULE

Meeting of Protest Against Unjust Act Called for Tonight.

A meeting of citizens has been called for this evening at 8 o'clock, in council chamber, for the purpose of discussing the proposition to have the next legislature repeal those sections of the public utility company law which takes from municipalities the right to enter into contracts with public utilities companies.

This act is very obnoxious to the people of the boroughs of the state, and it is to the interest of every property owner to hear the question of home rule discussed.

The movement against the public utility company act was started by representatives of boroughs in the western part of the state and culminated in the organization of the Municipal Home League at a meeting of these representatives at Harrisburg last week.

There should be a large attendance at the meeting in council chamber tonight.

WILL HOLD CONFERENCE

W. Draper Lewis to Meet Labor Leaders in Philadelphia.

A conference has been called by William Draper Lewis to meet at 3400 Chestnut street, Philadelphia tomorrow morning. Labor leaders from all over the state will be in attendance. Mr. Lewis desires to get the sentiment of the laboring man on industrial insurance and working men's compensation.

Mr. Lewis has made an intensive study of these subjects and will address the laboring men upon them. District No. 2 of Clearfield will have representatives in attendance.

GILDAY CHOSEN

Patrick Gilday, who acted as conciliator for department of labor in the settlement of the West Virginia strike has been appointed conciliator to try and bring about a settlement of the Westinghouse strike in Pittsburgh. This strike affects about 18,000 employees. Charles W. Mills, of Philadelphia, has also been appointed to act as conciliator in the strike.

WARNING TO PARENTS OF SMALL CHILDREN

Urged to Make Coming Fourth of July Safe and Sound

Thousands of small boys have been practicing an unwelcome thrift for days past in order that they may express their patriotism by a prodigal expenditure of their money on July 4th.

The state department of health is also making its preparations by ordering a special supply of tetanus antitoxin in the effort to prevent cases of lock-jaw among the same small boys.

There are a great many grown-ups, who having been permitted to run the risk of blowing themselves up in their youth and not having succeeded, believe that their sons and their neighbors should be given the same glorious privilege. This excess of sympathy should be reserved for those children who are unfortunate enough to lose their hands or their eyes or life itself in their "celebration."

Last year Pennsylvania had more accidents on the Fourth of July than any other state in the union. Nine deaths and 482 accidents were reported for the day in this commonwealth. In the entire United States there were only 1163 accidents and 32 deaths, so it is evident from the most casual observation that Pennsylvania had far more than her quota in this distressing and unnecessary sacrifice.

Let the municipal authorities do their part in preventing the barbaric sacrifice by prohibiting the sale and use of dangerous fire-works by providing a sufficient amount of pleasurable entertainment to make the day a real celebration for young and old.

Marriage Licenses.

Exel R. Johnson and Anna M. Eckling, both of Lancaster.

THEIR HANDS IN STATE TREASURY

Penrose Organs Given 'Pay' by Secretary of Commonwealth

POWELL CUTS DOWN THE BILL

McAfee Selects Newspapers Privileged to Penroseism as Mediums of Publicity for Proposed Amendments. Some Local Publishers Flummoxed by the Secretary in Distribution.

Robert McAfee, secretary of the commonwealth and prime minister of the Tenser administration is now making preparations to hand out his annual campaign map to gang newspaper publishers throughout the state, in the shape of constitutional amendments and vertebrae. This distribution is not necessarily an annual custom, but it has happened each year recently.

Of course the organs on the McAdams list will be expected to publish these articles for the Penrose ticket. These papers known as Democratic which receive the state advertising order must not be too severe on the Standard of senator and his running mates.

Might Have Saved Thousands.

McAfee last year passed out the amendment pay to about 250 papers, mostly of the Penrose variety, more than necessary to comply with the law, which requires advertising to be placed in at least two newspapers in each county. There are sixty-seven counties, so McAfee could have sent all legal requirements by advertising in 134 papers. A saving of the needless waste might have enabled the state to pay for miles of good roads.

If the papers had been allowed to have their way they would have come up in one year nearly all the money to night to pay for such advertising during a two-year period. The legislature appropriated $175,000 for the advertising last year and this year, and the McAfee-favored papers presented bills aggregating $117,220.10. But they didn't get it, for Auditor General A. W. Powell stepped in.

They Took the Hint.

Last year Powell was barely settled in the auditor general's department when the bills for amendment advertising for 1913 came pouring in. Powell didn't like the looks of so many of them, so he made up a full scale of payments, allowing so much per line, based on the paper's circulation. This cut some of the bills more than 60 per cent. and saved the state thousands of dollars.

Payments which Powell has to the state on last year's accounts total $75,900.07. Several accounts have yet to be settled, and these may run the total up to $80,000. Even so, Powell will have more than half of the $175,000 appropriated with which to meet the bills sent fall when they come in for this year's advertising.

The Twin Machine Organs.

Among the newspapers which received "pay" from the state for printing the amendments and which either support Penroseism outright or keep mum on Penrose are the following, with the amounts of cash money distributed by McAfee:

Clearfield Public Spirit, asked $974, got $374.

DuBois Journal, asked $224, got $343.20.

Phillipsburg Ledger, asked $224, got $405.60.

Clearfieldraftman's Journal, asked $312, got $312.

Curwensville Mountaineer, asked $312, got $386.80.

Punxsutawney Spirit, asked $224, got $436.80.

Punxsutawney Republican, asked $312, got $349.60.

SOCIAL AFFAIRS

Mrs. Charles Kurtz entertained a number of her friends at her home on West Front street, in honor of Mrs. Stewart, of Harrisburg, Saturday afternoon. Tables for cards were placed upon the porch and in the house. Mrs. Roland Wright won the first prize, a beautiful wicker tray. Mrs. Emmott Harder won the second prize, a box of correspondence cards. A delightful luncheon was served and the table was beautifully decorated with home grown roses.

A party of young people from town took their lunch and had a delightful picnic dinner at the log cabin yesterday. All had a most enjoyable time.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT.

To the remnants of the Grand Old
Party the name of Roosevelt acts like into a red rag to a bull. The Republicans who cling to the battered ship
of Penroseism do not like Colonel Roosevelt, because that gentleman
was instrumental in defeating the Penrose candidate for president in 1912. These Republicans realize that their cause is hopeless if Colonel Roosevelt decides to come into Pennsylvania and make speeches for Gifford Pinchot.

The chief occupation of the Penrose
Republicans these days is issuing bulletins to the effect that the Washington party of Pennsylvania is dead and buried. These statement are not substantiated by facts are things with which the Penrose Republicans have no intention to bother. It is sufficient for them that they make claims; let
the Washingtons prove these claims
false, if they can. As Colonel Roosevelt has said that he intends to talk
in this state and as the Washington
voters show no signs of dissolution
our Republican friend will have a pretty job on hand after the election
explaining away their prognostica-
tions.

In the meantime, the people of this state are confronted with the spectacle of the boss of the Republican party attempting to sidetrack the issues of the campaign in Pennsylvania.
Penrose is seeking some way by
which he may present a platform
which will offend neither the liquor
interests nor the anti-saloon people.
Whether he will be able to do this remains to be learned, but, knowing

that he won his nomination through
the rum agencies, the people will
look with suspicion upon any declaration of Penrose's which does not state
boldly and unequivocally where he stands on the liquor question.

MUST HAVE PROOF.

Mere rumor never convicted a man
of crime. Fortunately for the people
of this and other states, the courts
must have proof of a man's guilt before he can be sentenced for an alleged offense against the law. It is not sufficient, in the eyes of the law,
that "they say" that Jones is selling
liquor illegally, that Brown beats his wife or that Smith is a thief. These allegations must be backed by sufficient evidence to prove guilt before
the law can punish any of these men.

The records of the Clearfield county
courts contain many instances in which persons have been haled into
court on charges of violating the law
but when the cases got before the grand jury proof of guilt was lacking, and the defendants, after being subjected to annoyance and expense
have been released. If people who suspect others of illegal acts were to be sure of their facts the criminal courts would not be compelled to throw out many cases based merely
upon hearsay.

About this time of year expect to read of children burning to death because their parents are careless in placing matches where infants can
get hold of them.

Some motorists seem to think that
the more mud they have on their auto mobiles the less likely the public is to notice the size of the mortgage on the car.

Soon the Chautauqua will bring life
and interest to Clearfield.

Almost cool enough to be thinking
of mince pies.

Beautiful weather for everybody
but the crop grower.

ITALIANS ON PENNSY

11,000 Employed in Various Positions
on Eastern Lines.

There are 11,000 Italians employed
on the Pennsylvania railroad. Twenty years ago there were but very few.
There are in all about 140,000 employees on the Pennsylvania railroad
east of Pittsburgh and Erie. Italians form more than one-fourteenth of the total number.

Italy is represented in practically every department of the railroad, and
each day these men are making their impression. Twenty years ago all of the Italians employed by the company
were laborers. Today many of them
hold positions of trust and responsibility, due possibly to a great extent
to their learning the English language.
There are at the present time on the lines east of Pittsburgh seventy-five Italian track foremen—a position of
much importance in this day of heavy trains and many of them; there are 187 Italian assistant foremen, while
many others are making rapid advancement in the machine shops as gang leaders and machinists. Promotion is always open to the man who works hard and improves himself.

The census of Italians on the Manhattan division, for instance, is typical of the Pennsylvania railroad. This is what the Italians were doing there:

Kaiser Smashes Bottle on New Bismarck's Bow.

Hamburg, June 21.—The Bismarck,
the 60,000 ton big sister of the Impera-
tor and Vaterland, was launched at
the Blohm & Voss dockyard in Hamburg by the kaiser.

Although the granddaughter of the iron chancellor, Countess Hannah
von Bismarck, had been officially designated to name the new giantess,
the ceremony was actually performed
by the emperor himself. The countess had just said, "By command of his majesty the kaiser, I baptize thee Bismarck," and essayed to hurl the traditional bottle of champagne against
the colossal hull, but she failed to put
"steam" enough into her throw, with
the result that the bottle remained
dangling by the ribbons to which it
was attached.

An awkward interval, full of meaning for the superstitious, seemed imminent. The kaiser, who stood at the countess' elbow, took in the situation
like a flash. Without waiting for anybody to jump into the breach he rushed
forward, seized the bottle and,
drawing it back over his shoulder, sent
it crashing against the side of the vessel, splintering the glass in fragments.

The Bismarck was well and truly
launched, and mighty cheers went up
for the characteristic exhibition of energetic initiative the sailor kaiser had given.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at first sign of Bladder irritation or Backache.

The American men and women
must guard constantly against Kidne
trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidney
strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the elimi-
native tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and
a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps
of lead; your back hurts or the urine
is cloudy, full of sediment or you
are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you
suffer with sick headache or dizzy
nervous spells, acid stomach, or have
rheumatism when the weather is bad,
get from your pharmacist about four
ounces of Jad Salts; take a table-
spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of
grapes and lemon juice, combined wit
lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged
kidneys; to neutralize the acids in th
urine, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot
injure, makes a delightful efferves-
cent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having
a good kidney flushing any time.

Inquiries Being Made by State Regarding Tenants and "Run Downs"

Steps to ascertain from the authorities of various counties the number of farmers tilling their own property and the number of farms which are tenanted are being taken by the state department of agriculture. This information is intended to supplement the census of farmers and the number and size of farms taken last year.

It is the idea to issue this information in bulletin form, and also to give some statistics regarding the number of farms which have been allowed to run down, and which are available for grazing.

JEALOUS WIFE KILLS RICH BOSTON LAWYER

Fires Five Bullets Into Head and Neck.

Exeter, N. H., June 21.—Henry H. Folsom, a Boston lawyer, was found dead with bullets in his head and neck on the road between here and Newmarket. His wife was standing over the body with a revolver in her hand. She admitted that she fired the shots. "I did it because I loved him," she told the police, who say also that she declared she was jealous of her husband. Mrs. Folsom is about forty years old. Her husband was a little older.

The Folsoms have a summer home at Newmarket, eight miles from here. Mrs. Folsom has been there several weeks. She came to Exeter and met her husband, who arrived on a late train from Boston. They were driving to Newmarket when the shooting occurred. A party of men in an automobile came upon the body with the woman beside it. After questioning her they notified the police.

After a hearing before Judge Edward D. Mayer here, Mrs. Folsom was held for the grand jury of the October term of court. She pleaded guilty and said the court would not understand if she told her reasons for the shooting. "I have no case," she said.

On the suggestion of County Solicitor Ernest L. Gupill that the woman ought to be represented by counsel the court appointed Stewart E. Dowe of Exeter, who entered a plea of not guilty in his client's behalf.

Chief of Police Davis testified that when he asked Mrs. Folsom why she shot her husband, she answered, "So he would not marry another woman."

SUFFRAGE PLEA IS TURNED DOWN

Premier Asquith Remains Firm In His Refusal.

SYLVIA PANKHURST ABSENT

Premier Tells Delegation of Women of East End He Cannot Change Course. Government Leader Raps Methods of "Furies"—Says He Will Probe Forcible Feeding.

London, June 21.—Although for the first time Premier Asquith received a deputation urging "votes for women," he flatly refused to accede to their demands that he introduce a suffrage bill in parliament.

The premier received six east end working women at his official residence in Downing street, while outside a great crowd booed and cheered them. George Lansbury, M. P., accompanied the women, but Sylvia Pankhurst, whose demand on the steps of the house of commons Thursday forced the concession, did not attend the conference.

Asquith listened carefully and patiently while the women argued that woman suffrage would solve England's present distressing economic condition. At the end of their statements he said that he did not agree with their views and could not change the determination of the government not to introduce the suffrage bill "at this time."

Deputation is Welcomed. The premier welcomed the members of the deputation as representatives of "an association which dissociated itself from the criminal methods of those who have done so much damage and put back the cause of woman."

Mr. Asquith argued that if every woman over twenty-one years of age possessed the vote they would still find legislative problems regarding women exceedingly difficult of solution in the same way as the men had found them. He agreed with the deputation that if the franchise were given to women it should be granted on the same terms as it was given to men.

The premier explained that while it had become necessary to suppress the organized violence of the militant suffragettes, the government had no desire to interfere with free speech or the proper organization of opinion.

Asquith promised the east end women, however, that he would confer with Home Secretary McKenna on a request they made that Sylvia Pankhurst and Mrs. Walker be unconditionally released. He also promised careful consideration of claims by the women that forcible feeding was brutally practiced.

COBB ARRESTED AND HURT.

Baseball Player in a Fight—Broken Thumb Will Keep Him From Game.

Detroit, June 21.—Tyrus Raymond Cobb, the famous center fielder of the Detroit American League Baseball club, was arrested in the butcher's shop of W. L. Carpenter, on Hamilton boulevard, while engaging in a fist fight with Harold Harding, twenty years of age, one of Carpenter's employees. Harding told the police that Cobb assaulted him after the ball player had drawn a revolver on the proprietor. Carpenter confirmed the charge and said Cobb attacked Harding when the latter attempted to interfere.

Cobb was taken to the Bethune avenue police station and held pending an investigation. Several friends offered to furnish bail for his release, but even if Cobb wins his liberty he will not be able to play ball for several days. He broke his right thumb during the scuffle with Harding.

COURT DEALS ON PENALTIES

A Number of Prisoners Sentenced by Judge Bell

HIGHWAY ROBBER TO THE PEN

Murphy, Who Held Up a Woman on Streets of DuBois in April Pleads Guilty—The Brink-Hoover Case From Troutville Aired in Court.

A batch of seven prisoners, some convicted of crimes and others of whom plead guilty, were disposed of by Judge Bell in court this morning.

August Pierre, charged with receiving stolen goods, taken from a Curwensville store, was sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and the costs and serve a term of imprisonment in the Western penitentiary for a period of not more than two and one-half years and not less than two years. Pierre took his sentence calmly.

Jack Daley, an alleged accomplice of Pierre, was dismissed from custody, proof of his guilt not having been established.

Harry Holes, wife desertion, was the subject of an order relative to further payment to his wife and children.

A. J. Murphy, who was accused of highway robbery at DuBois, in April, plead guilty to robbing Mrs. Stage, an aged lady of DuBois, some money and a quality of jewelry being taken. The robbery occurred on the street in DuBois in the dusk of the evening. Murphy on the stand told his side of the story, confessing that he had perpetrated the robbery. He said that he had been in business in Curwensville for about five years, going from there to DuBois. Since he became infatuated with a DuBois woman he has neglected to aid his family.

Murphy stated that a woman had put him up to rob Mrs. Stage and told him how to get the jewelry from her. He said that after the robbery he went down the street, took the contents out of the handbag and put them into his pocket. He then went to the scene of the robbery and mingled with the crowd.

Murphy had made a confession of his guilt while in jail. He sold some of the jewelry, pawned some, and threw others into the river at Pittsburgh.

In his questions, J. A. Gleason, representing the commonwealth, sought to prove that two women of DuBois were Murphy's accomplices in the crime.

Judge Bell stated that there was nothing in the case calling for leniency. In view of his family the court sentenced Murphy to pay $1 and costs and undergo imprisonment in the Western penitentiary for a period of not more than three years and not less than two years and six months.

Mike Alexandrovitch, charged with stealing pigeons from a DuBois priest. The boy is said to have stolen a score or more pigeons. The prisoner said his boarding house boss took two of the birds and agreed to say nothing about the matter. The boarding boss is under bail on the charge of receiving stolen goods. The boy plead guilty.

Mike was remanded to jail, more as a witness to be used in the prosecution of his boarding house boss than as a convict. The boy is not very bright.

The case against William Hoover, charged with enticing Lizzie Brink from her home near Troutville to a shanty on the mountains near Curry Run closed at noon with the statement of the court that the case is so complicated that more time would be given to the commonwealth in which to secure evidence against the prisoner.

The Brink-Hoover case is one of the hardest nuts the county court has had to pick for years. The father, Abraham Brink is accused by his daughter Lizzie, a girl under 16 years of age, with an attempt to assault her. The daughter is charged with incorrigibility and William Hoover is charged with abducting Lizzie away from her home for immoral purposes.

Judge Bell remanded Lizzie to jail and directed that William Hoover be given his freedom, provided he enters into a recognizance with good security for his appearance at the September term.

Abraham Brink was also remanded to jail for court.

Sheriff McCloskey added several new prisoners to his jail family since

Saturday Mary Walle was brought to the hostile from Chest township on the charge of being a vicious and boisterous woman. Harry White also of Chest township, was jailed on the charge of committing a statutory crime upon a fourteen-years old girl in that township.

FLYNN NOT FLINN

Elk County Democrat Author of the Party Enrollment Act.

Lacking respectable campaign material to bolster up their cause, some of the Penrose men have resorted to the cheap trick of trying to throw the blame for the enactment of the unpopular Flynn party enrollment law on ex-Senator William Flinn, of Pittsburgh, the Washington party state leader.

As a matter of fact, the name of Flynn on the gang enrollment act stands as an indictment of Penrose's bipartisan machine that has operated at Harrisburg. The legislator who introduced the enrollment bill for its tory authors was State Representative John M. Flynn, a Jim Hall Democrat, of Elk county, and the Republican-Democratic twin-machine lawmakers passed it. The Elk county Flynn, it will be noticed, does not spell his name the same way as ex-Senator Flinn. The Progressives in the legislature opposed the Flynn bill.

FINE ENTERTAINMENT

Program Executed at Baptist Church Pleases Audience.

The Children's day exercises at the Baptist church Sunday evening were heartily enjoyed by a large audience. The children taking part in the entertainment acquitted themselves in a most creditable manner and won merited praise.

The solos by the little girls were especially good, and the entire program was one in which the friends of the boys and girls found much to commend.

LISTS OF CANDIDATES

Names of Nominees at Primaries to be Printed by State.

Copy for the state department's biennial pamphlet, showing the list of successful candidates for all offices at the primaries last month, has been sent to the state printer, and it is hoped to have the publication ready for distribution by the end of this month.

The department already has had loose sheets printed showing the vote by sheets for United States senator, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of internal affairs and supreme and superior court judges.

MOST WELCOME RAIN VISITS CLEARFIELD

Brings Joy to Farmers and Gardeners And Ends Drouth

A rainstorm which was worth thousands of dollars to Clearfield county farmers and gardeners, flushed the streets of this town, put an end to the dust nuisance in the public roads and did some slight damage, visited this section Sunday evening.

The storm assumed aspects such as have never been seen in this vicinity. The heavens were filled with clouds which had the appearance of having encountered diverse winds on their voyage through the air, presenting the form of swirls, eddies and rapids, so familiar to those who watch the waters of a rapid stream of water. The picture presented to view was such as might have produced two mighty storms meeting and contesting the right of way through the etherial highway.

Rain began to fall early in the evening and continued steadily all night, penetrating the ground in that manner so pleasing to the grower of crops and vegetables. It was one of the most welcome downpours of water this section has had in years, as the vegetation in the county was parched and retarded by the long season of drouth.

The electric accompaniment to the rain did little damage, but the wind overthrew a number of trees and broke off the branches in various parts of town. A big tree on Market street, near the bridge, was blown over and a large branch was broken from a tree at the English Lutheran church.

If you have anything to sell, try an advertisement in the Progress. The cost is light and the results are almost certain to be satisfactory.

ROOSEVELT WILL VISIT THE STATE

Colonel Will Aid in Campaign Against Penroseism

PINCHOT STANDS BY BROTHER

Progressive Party Would be Better Off if Chairman Perkins Were to Resign—Postmaster Removed for Holding Up Pinchot Cards Announcing Meetings.

Gifford Pinchot, Washington party nominee for United States senator, denounces as absurd the statements in tory newspapers that Theodore Roosevelt will not take an aggressive part in the Pennsylvania campaign this fall. He ridicules the reactionaries' stories the the colonel may seek to renew friendship with Senator Penrose.

"I have not the slightest doubt that Colonel Roosevelt will come into the state this fall to carry out his program and take an aggressive part in the campaign," said Mr. Pinchot on his return to Philadelphia from a visit to New Haven. "Whether he makes a speech for an hour and a half outdoors or not is not of great importance. The essential thing is that the colonel is coming here.

"The repeated statements in the reactionary press to the effect that he will not come to Pennsylvania are expressions of the hopes of those papers and not of the facts in the case. The wish of such papers is father to their statements.

No Truth in Story.

"The same is true of the stories that the colonel will let up on Penrose. The senator's followers, if they are under any such delusion as this, will have occasion to change their minds when the colonel gets here. None but a remarkably simple-minded person could be led to believe either that the colonel desires the friendship of the Penrose machine or that he can get it under any circumstances.

"Penrose and Roosevelt can no more mix than oil and water, for they stand for diametrically opposite principles, both in theory and practice."

Stands With His Brother.

Gifford Pinchot, in an interview declared that he stood with his brother, Amos Pinchot, in the latter's criticism of George W. Perkins, of New York.

Last week Amos Pinchot made public a letter calling on Perkins to resign as an official of the Progressive party because of his relations with the harvester and steel trusts.

"My brother is right," said Gifford Pinchot. "I am in hearty agreement with his desire that the Progressive party should be free from the burden of Perkins' chairmanship. Perkins has had and will have nothing whatever to do with my fight against Penrose in Pennsylvania. In general the people of our state appear to take little interest in Perkins."

Since he announced that he intends to spend the summer in campaigning, Pinchot has received a flood of invitations from all parts of the state asking him to deliver addresses and speeches. He will fill as many dates as possible, while at the same time keeping up his work in meeting the voters throughout the counties and discussing the issues.

Held Up Pinchot's Cards.

New Cumberland, June 22.—Herman Long has been removed as postmaster here for holding mails sent by Gifford Pinchot to voters.

When Mr. Pinchot visited this section recently, it was found that his cards announcing his coming had not been received by persons to whom they were addressed. The postal authorities sent an inspector here. After receiving the signatures of many men who said they did not receive their mail, the inspector went to the local office, where he found it in a bundle on a shelf. Mr. Long's defense was that the patrons refused to accept the cards, but this was found not to be the case.

On Saturday, James A. Davis, one of Long's bondsmen, was notified by the department to meet the co-security and select a person to take charge of the office until Long's successor is appointed.

Long is a Penrose Republican, who was appointed on the recommendation of the late Congressman Olmstead.

JOHN HALEY, SR. SERIOUSLY HURT

His Automobile Gets Beyond Control on Moore's Hill

While Descending Incline Mr. Haley's Car Turns Turtle and He is Buried Under Machine—Collar Bone Dislocated, Four Ribs Broken and His Head Badly Cut.

John Haley, Sr., a prominent citizen of Penn township, was seriously injured Saturday afternoon when his automobile got from him while he was descending Moore's hill, near Lumber City. Mr. Haley was driving down the hill at a pretty fast rate when his car got beyond his control and the machine turned turtle, pinning him beneath it.

Mr. Haley was held down by the car about an hour, when he was found by an automobile party passing that way and released. When found he was unconscious, but later regained his senses.

The injured man was taken to his home and Dr. Curry, of Grampian, and Dr. King, of Curwensville, were summoned to attend to him. It was found that Mr. Haley's collar bone was dislocated, four of his ribs broken and his head badly cut.

He is in a critical condition, and an operation will be performed to save his life. Mr. Haley is a farmer and was also engaged in lumbering.

HUNTERS LICENSES

Blanks Being Issued to County Treasurers by Game Commission.

Issuance of blanks for hunters' licenses for 1914 has been started by the state game commission, and it is expected more than 310,000 blanks will be sent to the county treasurers throughout the state so that all applicants can be taken care of promptly. Last year 303,000 licenses were issued at $1 each, the state treasurer receiving all but ten per cent., which went to the county treasurers. Unfortunately the money remains in the state treasury, awaiting the settlement of the controversy about specific appropriations.

The licenses will become effective on September 1, when it is expected many persons will have obtained them.

HOME RULE

Meeting of Protest Against Unjust Act Called for Tonight.

A meeting of citizens has been called for this evening at 8 o'clock, in council chamber, for the purpose of discussing the proposition to have the next legislature repeal those sections of the public utility company law which takes from municipalities the right to enter into contracts with public utilities companies.

This act is very obnoxious to the people of the boroughs of the state, and it is to the interest of every property owner to hear the question of home rule discussed.

The movement against the public utility company act was started by representatives of boroughs in the western part of the state and culminated in the organization of the Municipal Home League at a meeting of these representatives at Harrisburg last week.

There should be a large attendance at the meeting in council chamber tonight.

WARNING TO PARENTS OF SMALL CHILDREN

Urged to Make Coming Fourth of July Safe and Sound

Thousands of small boys have been practicing an unwelcome thrift for days past in order that they may express their patriotism by a prodigal expenditure of their money on July 4th.

The state department of health is also making its preparations by ordering a special supply of tetanus antitoxin in the effort to prevent cases of lock-jaw among the same small boys.

There are a great many grown-ups, who having been permitted to run the risk of blowing themselves up in their youth and not having succeeded, believe that their sons and their neighbors should be given the same glorious privilege. This excess of sympathy should be reserved for those children who are unfortunate enough to lose their hands or their eyes or life itself in their "celebration."

Last year Pennsylvania had more accidents on the Fourth of July than any other state in the union. Nine deaths and 482 accidents were reported for the day in this commonwealth. In the entire United States there were only 1163 accidents and 32 deaths, so it is evident from the most casual observation that Pennsylvania had far more than her quota in this distressing and unnecessary sacrifice.

Let the municipal authorities do their part in preventing the barbaric sacrifice by prohibiting the sale and use of dangerous fire-works by providing a sufficient amount of pleasurable entertainment to make the day a real celebration for young and old.

THEIR HANDS IN STATE TREASURY

Penrose Organs Given 'Pay' by Secretary of Commonwealth

POWELL CUTS DOWN THE BILL

McAfee Selects Newspapers Privileged to Penroseism as Mediums of Publicity for Proposed Amendments. Some Local Publishers Flummoxed by the Secretary in Distribution.

Robert McAfee, secretary of the commonwealth and prime minister of the Tenser administration is now making preparations to hand out his annual campaign map to gang newspaper publishers throughout the state, in the shape of constitutional amendments and vertebrae. This distribution is not necessarily an annual custom, but it has happened each year recently.

Of course the organs on the McAdams list will be expected to publish these articles for the Penrose ticket. These papers known as Democratic which receive the state advertising order must not be too severe on the Standard of senator and his running mates.

Might Have Saved Thousands.

McAfee last year passed out the amendment pay to about 200 papers, mostly of the Penrose variety, more than necessary to comply with the law, which requires advertising to be placed in at least two newspapers in each county. There are sixty-seven counties, so McAfee could have sent all legal requirements by advertising in 134 papers. A saving of the needless waste might have enabled the state to pay for miles of good roads.

If the papers had been allowed to have their way they would have come up in one year nearly all the money to night to pay for such advertising during a two-year period. The legislature appropriated $175,000 for the advertising last year and this year, and the McAfee-favored papers presented bills aggregating $117,220.10. But they didn't get it, for Auditor General A. W. Powell stepped in.

They Took the Hint.

Last year Powell was barely settled in the auditor general's department when the bills for amendment advertising for 1913 came pouring in. Powell didn't like the looks of so many of them, so he made up a full scale of payments, allowing so much per line, based on the paper's circulation. This cut some of the bills more than 60 per cent. and saved the state thousands of dollars.

Payments which Powell has to the state on last year's accounts total $75,900.07. Several accounts have yet to be settled, and these may run the total up to $80,000. Even so, Powell will have more than half of the $175,000 appropriated with which to meet the bills sent fall when they come in for this year's advertising.

The Twin Machine Organs.

Among the newspapers which received "pay" from the state for printing the amendments and which either support Penroseism outright or keep mum on Penrose are the following, with the amounts of cash money distributed by McAfee:

Clearfield Public Spirit, asked $974, got $374.

DuBois Journal, asked $884, got $343.20.

Phillipsburg Ledger, asked $884, got $405.60.

Clearfieldraftman's Journal, asked $312, got $312.

Curwensville Mountaineer, asked $312, got $386.80.

Punxsutawney Spirit, asked $384, got $436.80.

Punxsutawney Republican, asked $312, got $349.60.

Centennial, Sept. 6 to 13.
Labor day, September 7.
Columbus day, October 12.
Thanksgiving day, November 26.

WHY?

Why not prove yourself a loyal citizen by taking part in the Fourth of July celebration?

Good evening! Have you swatted the potato bugs in your garden today?

COLONEL ROOSEVELT.

To the remnants of the Grand Old
Party the name of Roosevelt acts like a red rag to a bull. The Republicans who cling to the battered ship
of Penroseism do not like Colonel
Roosevelt, because that gentleman
was instrumental in defeating the Penrose candidate for president in 1912. These Republicans realize that
their cause is hopeless if Colonel
Roosevelt decides to come into Pennsylvania and make speeches for Gifford Pinchot.

The chief occupation of the Penrose
Republicans these days is issuing bulletins to the effect that the Washington party of Pennsylvania is dead and buried. These statements are not substantiated by facts are things with
which the Penrose Republicans have
no intention to bother. It is sufficient
for them that they make claims; let
the Washingtons prove these claims
false, if they can. As Colonel Roosevelt has said that he intends to talk
in this state and as the Washington
voters show no signs of dissolution
our Republican friend will have a pretty job on hand after the election
explaining away their prognostica-
tions.

In the meantime, the people of this state are confronted with the
spectacle of the boss of the Republican party attempting to sidestep the issues of the campaign in Pennsylvania.
Penrose is seeking some way by
which he may present a platform
which will offend neither the liquor
interests nor the anti-saloon people.
Whether he will be able to do this remains to be learned, but, knowing

that he won his nomination through
the rum agencies, the people will
look with suspicion upon any declaration of Penrose's which does not state
boldly and unequivocally where he stands on the liquor question.

MUST HAVE PROOF.

Mere rumor never convicted a man
of crime. Fortunately for the people
of this and other states, the courts
must have proof of a man's guilt before he can be sentenced for an alleged offense against the law. It is
not sufficient, in the eyes of the law,
that "they say" that Jones is selling
liquor illegally, that Brown beats his wife or that Smith is a thief. These
allegations must be backed by sufficient evidence to prove guilt before
the law can punish any of these men.

The records of the Clearfield county
courts contain many instances in
which persons have been haled into
court on charges of violating the law
but when the cases got before the grand jury proof of guilt was lacking, and the defendants, after being
subjected to annoyance and expense
have been released. If people who suspect others of illegal acts were to
be sure of their facts the criminal
courts would not be compelled to
throw out many cases based merely
upon hearsay.

About this time of year expect to
read of children burning to death because their parents are careless in
placing matches where infants can
get hold of them.

Some motorists seem to think that
the more mud they have on their auto
mobiles the less likely the public is to
notice the size of the mortgage on the
car.

Soon the Chautauqua will bring life
and interest to Clearfield.
Almost cool enough to be thinking
of mince pies.

Beautiful weather for everybody
but the crop grower.

ITALIANS ON PENNSY

11,000 Employed in Various Positions
on Eastern Lines.

There are 11,000 Italians employed
on the Pennsylvania railroad. Twenty years ago there were but very few.
There are in all about 140,000 employees on the Pennsylvania railroad
east of Pittsburgh and Erie. Italians
form more than one-fourteenth of the total number.

Italy is represented in practically
every department of the railroad, and
each day these men are making their impression. Twenty years ago all of
the Italians employed by the company
were laborers. Today many of them
hold positions of trust and responsibility, due possibly to a great extent
to their learning the English language.
There are at the present time on the
lines east of Pittsburgh seventy-five Italian track foremen—a position of
much importance in this day of heavy
trains and many of them; there are 187 Italian assistant foremen, while
many others are making rapid advancement in the machine shops as
gang leaders and machinists. Promotion is always open to the man who
works hard and improves himself.

The census of Italians on the Manhattan division, for instance, is typical of the Pennsylvania railroad. This is what the Italians were doing there:

BIGGEST LINER YET TAKES THE WATER

Kaiser Smashes Bottle on New Bismarck's Bow.

Hamburg, June 21.—The Bismarck,
the 60,000 ton big sister of the Impera-
tor and Vaterland, was launched at
the Blohm & Voss dockyard in Hamburg by the kaiser.

Although the granddaughter of the
iron chancellor, Countess Hannah
von Bismarck, had been officially designated to name the new giantess,
the ceremony was actually performed
by the emperor himself. The countess
had just said, "By command of his
majesty the kaiser, I baptize thee
Bismarck," and essayed to hurl the
traditional bottle of champagne against
the colossal hull, but she failed to put
"steam" enough into her throw, with
the result that the bottle remained
dangling by the ribbons to which it
was attached.

An awkward interval, full of meaning for the superstitious, seemed imminent. The kaiser, who stood at the countess' elbow, took in the situation
like a flash. Without waiting for any-
body to jump into the breach he rushed
forward, seized the bottle and,
drawing it back over his shoulder, sent
it crashing against the side of the vessel, splintering the glass in fragments.

The Bismarck was well and truly
launched, and mighty cheers went up
for the characteristic exhibition of energetic initiative the sailor kaiser had
given.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at first sign of Bladder ir-
ritation or Backache.

The American men and women
must guard constantly against Kidne
trouble, because we eat too much and
all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidney
strive to filter out, they weaken from
overwork, become sluggish; the elimi-
native tissues clog and the result is
kidney trouble, bladder weakness and
a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps
of lead; your back hurts or the urine
is cloudy, full of sediment or you
are obliged to seek relief two or
three times during the night; if you
suffer with sick headache or dizzy
nervous spells, acid stomach, or have
rheumatism when the weather is bad,
get from your pharmacist about four
ounces of Jad Salts; take a table-
spoonful in a glass of water before
breakfast for a few days and your
kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of
grapes and lemon juice, combined wit
lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged
kidneys; to neutralize the acids in th
urine, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot
injure, makes a delightful efferves-
cent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having
a good kidney flushing any time.

Inquiries Being Made by State Regarding Tenants and "Run Downs"

Steps to ascertain from the authorities of various counties the number of farmers tilling their own property and the number of farms which are tenanted are being taken by the state department of agriculture. This information is intended to supplement the census of farmers and the number and size of farms taken last year.

It is the idea to issue this information in bulletin form, and also to give some statistics regarding the number of farms which have been allowed to run down, and which are available for grazing.

SUFFRAGE PLEA IS TURNED DOWN

Premier Asquith Remains Firm In His Refusal.

SYLVIA PANKHURST ABSENT

Premier Tells Delegation of Women of East End He Cannot Change Course. Government Leader Raps Methods of "Furies"—Says He Will Probe Forcible Feeding.

London, June 21.—Although for the first time Premier Asquith received a deputation urging "votes for women," he flatly refused to accede to their demands that he introduce a suffrage bill in parliament.

The premier received six east end working women at his official residence in Downing street, while outside a great crowd booed and cheered them. George Lansbury, M. P., accompanied the women, but Sylvia Pankhurst, whose demand on the steps of the house of commons Thursday forced the concession, did not attend the conference.

Asquith listened carefully and patiently while the women argued that woman suffrage would solve England's present distressing economic condition. At the end of their statements he said that he did not agree with their views and could not change the determination of the government not to introduce the suffrage bill "at this time."

Deputation Is Welcomed. The premier welcomed the members of the deputation as representatives of "an association which dissociated itself from the criminal methods of those who have done so much damage and put back the cause of woman."

Mr. Asquith argued that if every woman over twenty-one years of age possessed the vote they would still find legislative problems regarding women exceedingly difficult of solution in the same way as the men had found them. He agreed with the deputation that if the franchise were given to women it should be granted on the same terms as it was given to men.

The premier explained that while it had become necessary to suppress the organized violence of the militant suffragettes, the government had no desire to interfere with free speech or the proper organization of opinion.

Asquith promised the east end women, however, that he would confer with Home Secretary McKenna on a request they made that Sylvia Pankhurst and Mrs. Walker be unconditionally released. He also promised careful consideration of claims by the women that forcible feeding was brutally practiced.

COBB ARRESTED AND HURT.

Baseball Player In a Fight—Broken Thumb Will Keep Him From Game.

Detroit, June 21.—Tyrus Raymond Cobb, the famous center fielder of the Detroit American League Baseball club, was arrested in the butcher's shop of W. L. Carpenter, on Hamilton boulevard, while engaging in a fist fight with Harold Harding, twenty years of age, one of Carpenter's employees. Harding told the police that Cobb assaulted him after the ball player had drawn a revolver on the proprietor. Carpenter confirmed the charge and said Cobb attacked Harding when the latter attempted to interfere.

Cobb was taken to the Bethune avenue police station and held pending an investigation. Several friends offered to furnish bail for his release, but even if Cobb wins his liberty he will not be able to play ball for several days. He broke his right thumb during the scuffle with Harding.

JEALOUS WIFE KILLS RICH BOSTON LAWYER

Fires Five Bullets Into Head and Neck.

Exeter, N. H., June 21.—Henry H. Folsom, a Boston lawyer, was found dead with bullets in his head and neck on the road between here and Newmarket. His wife was standing over the body with a revolver in her hand. She admitted that she fired the shots.

"I did it because I loved him," she told the police, who say also that she declared she was jealous of her husband. Mrs. Folsom is about forty years old. Her husband was a little older.

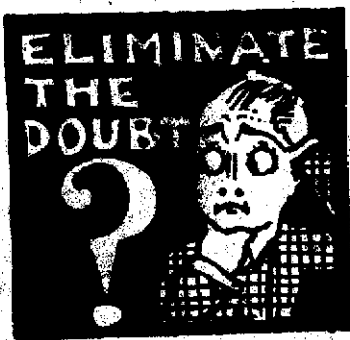

The Folsoms have a summer home at Newmarket, eight miles from here. Mrs. Folsom has been there several weeks. She came to Exeter and met her husband, who arrived on a late train from Boston. They were driving to Newmarket when the shooting occurred. A party of men in an automobile came upon the body with the woman beside it. After questioning her they notified the police.

After a hearing before Judge Edward D. Mayer here, Mrs. Folsom was held for the grand jury of the October term of court. She pleaded guilty and said the court would not understand if she told her reasons for the shooting. "I have no case," she said.

On the suggestion of County Solicitor Ernest L. Gupitill that the woman ought to be represented by counsel the court appointed Stewart E. Dowe of Exeter, who entered a plea of not guilty in his client's behalf.

Chief of Police Davis testified that when he asked Mrs. Folsom why she shot her husband, she answered, "So he would not marry another woman."
